Senator Edmunds Sends in a Resolution to Investigate the Canadian Fishery Question.

The Oleomargarine Bill Goes to the President—Morrison's Surplus Bill.

THE FISHERIES.

A Senate Committee to Look Into to Them.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Senator Edmunds to-day submitted the following resolution, which was referred to the committee on foreign relations:

Resolved, That the committee on foreign relations be and is hereby instructed to enquire into the rights of American fishing vessels and merchant vessels within the North American possessions of the queen of Great Britain, where the rights of such vessels have been violated, and if so, to what extent.

That said committee report upon the subject and report whether, and if so, what steps are necessary to be taken by congress to secure the protection and vindication of the rights of citizens of the United States in the premises. That said committee have power to send for persons and papers, to employ stenographers and to sit during the recess of the senate, whether as a full committee or by any sub-committee thereof. That such sub-committee shall for the purpose of such investigation be a committee of the senate to all intents and purposes.

It is now understood that a caucus of republican senators was held at Senator Sherman's house, last evening, and resulted in the appointment of a committee consisting of Senators Sherman, Allison and Aldrich, to devise a line of action with respect to the Morrison surplus resolution. It is said the expression of views were widely divergent, but it was thought the political indication is that the senate committee on finance should not ignore the resolution. The committee, it is believed, will seek to amend it, leaving to the secretary of the treasury some measure of discretion he now has over the matter and increasing the minimum, the reserve to be left in the treasury.

The house has concurred in all the senate amendments to the oleomargarine bill, thus averting the necessity for a conference. The bill now goes to the president for his action.

Hoar's resolution for the investigation of Payne's election, was lost by a vote of yeas 15, nays 44.

Railroad Y. M. C. A. Social.

Last evening the rooms of the association were filled with sociable people who had come to enjoy a few pleasant hours. The male choir, led by Mr. Bradley, sang several of McGranahan's songs, while solos and duets were given by the following gentlemen and ladies: Messrs. Haddon, Hays and Misses Welch, Moore and Doty.

One of the most enjoyable features was the singing with guitar, accompanied by Mr. John Maier. The next social will be given by the young gentlemen on the 16th of August, when they will assume all responsibility in the matter and give the ladies a season of rest.

Skull Crushed.

EVANSVILLE, July 23.—A frightful accident occurred about 5 o'clock last evening in Charles Hofferberth's lumber yards, about half a mile below this city. John Murphy, while engaged in hoisting a heavy piece of timber, let the crank of the windlass slip from his hands, and it struck him on the head, crushing his skull. He was taken to his home, where he died at 6 o'clock. He leaves a wife and two children in destitute circumstances.

Bartley Campbell Sinking.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Bartley Campbell is again reported to be sinking rapidly at Bloomingdale. From a reliable source it was learned to-day that the past week has made a marked change in him physically as well as mentally. He fails to recognize his most intimate friends, save for a few moments at a time. He still holds to his idea that he is in partnership with Queen Victoria as proprietor of a large hotel. He fails now to take any interest in billiards, which during his early stay at the asylum, gave him so much enjoyment.

Thanks to America.

Mr. Patrick Egan, president of the Irish National League of America, has received the following cablegram from the Hon. Timothy Harrington, M. P., secretary of the Irish parliamentary party:

DUBLIN, July 20.—Thank the American league for its splendid encouragement in our struggle. Our cause is making glorious progress among English democracy, and no temporary check can affect it. The spirit of our people is excellent. Parnell wires me that he is communicating with members and will name the deputation to your convention in a day or two.

HARRINGTON.

Took Poison.

CINCINNATI, July 23.—A special from Coshooton, Ohio, says: "Thomas Watson, a woolen manufacturer and an extensive wool buyer, at Roscoe, took a dose of oil of vitriol last night and died this morning. It is not known whether it was purposely or accidentally taken. He was a member of the constitutional convention of 1851."

Vermont Democrats

MONTPELIER, Vt., July 23.—The democratic state convention met this morning. S. B. Shurtleff and P. M. Maldon were nominated for governor and lieutenant-governor respectively.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. J. C. Wagner is dangerously ill. Hon. R. C. Bell has returned from Kansas City and Indianapolis.

The weather indications for Indiana are: Fair weather, warmer, northerly winds.

Supt. and Mrs. G. F. Felts are pleasantly located at 220 West Wayne street, where they will be glad to see their friends.

Al. Foote and Will Bostick came home from Lima last night by rail. They had a delightful tour on their bicycles, barring a few bad roads.

Dr. S. C. Metcalfe tells us that people in the east end have lodged complaint against O'Reilly, who keeps a dairy and harbors cows to the great disgust of his neighbors.

"Mrs. C. W. Graffe and daughter, of Fort Wayne, visited Mrs. George Webster last week. On their return home Mrs. Webster accompanied them," says the Monroeville Breeze.

The normal institute will begin on Monday next. There will be at least 100 teachers in the city. Persons in the west end wishing boarders or roomers should apply to County Superintendent Felts.

"Mr. Lewis and lady, of Fort Wayne, have been spending several days with their son, Joseph. It is a pleasure to converse with two old persons who are so young and so good," says the Monroeville Breeze.

Jokers may say what they please about the perils of the early watermelons, but the fact is that the quality of the melons received from the south this season is first-class. People can't be scared from feasting on them except by the prices at which they are held. The dread of doctor's bills don't stand in the way.

William Ravenstrot, a member of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific wrecking crew, was loading heavy timber on the wreck train at Andrews last night, when a rope he was holding broke, causing him to fall to the ground, a distance of ten feet. Ravenstrot's back was wrenched by the fall, and he sustained internal injuries which will prove fatal.

Hon. R. C. Bell informs us that while at Indianapolis last week he asked Hon. Robert Ingersoll, by the request of the reunion committee, if he could attend the reunion here and deliver an address. He answered that under no circumstances could he attend. Mr. Bell so informed the committee. In the face of these facts they are advertising that Mr. Ingersoll will be here.

THE WABASH

Indulges in a Disastrous Collision and Smashup.

There was a disastrous wreck on the Wabash railroad, near Kokomo, last evening. The train from Indianapolis ran into a caboose on the Han-Handle road, and smashed things about lively. The conductor and occupants of the cab were in the midst of the debris and miraculously escaped death. The Wabash engineer and fireman leaped from the engine, the front of which was flattened. The passengers on the train were pitched about lively, but escaped with bruises. A special train went to the scene and brought the passengers here at 4 o'clock this morning. They were due here last evening. The damage will exceed $4,000.

Charley, the four-year-old son of Wm. Briggeman, of No. 116 Madison street, died this noon of scarlet fever.

Jumped From the Brooklyn Bridge.

NEW YORK, July 23.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, Stephen Brodie, twenty-three years old, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge, from the center span, into East river. He was taken to the police station apparently uninjured.

Kansas City Has a Real Estate Exchange.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 23.—The Real Estate exchange was formally inaugurated here yesterday afternoon for facilitating transactions in general estate business, and fostering manufacturing and business interests of the city. Speeches were made by the officers and prominent men.

Mrs. Crawford Did Sin.

LONDON, July 23.—The case of Crawford against Crawford and Dilke, was given to the jury this afternoon. They returned a verdict finding Mrs. Crawford guilty of adultery with Sir Charles Dilke and granting Crawford a divorce.

A Big Shutdown.

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, Mass., July 23.—The Para Rubber Shoe company posted notice this morning that its factory would be closed July 31st, for repairs. 1,100 hands will be thrown out of employment.

Fleeing From the Drought.

FORT WORTH, Texas, July 23.—Wagons loaded with families and their effects from western counties, were streaming through the city, fleeing from the drought.

Fire Record.

GALENA, Ill., July 23.—Fullberg & Sons brewery and an adjoining dwelling burned yesterday. Loss $22,000; insurance $5,500.

Business Failures.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The business failures occurring during the last seven days are: United States, 160; Canada, 24.

Corsets for Men.

"Do gentlemen wear those—those corsets much?" I asked. "Yes, madam," the young man answered. "They improve the figure."

"I was willing to get further information. 'But do they call them corsets?'" "No, madam, they call 'em supportaers."

A little while after that I was going along the street with a gentleman who was well-looking and that it was a real satisfaction to walk beside him. I knew every other woman was looking back and wondering who that distinguished looking man was. Well, he had a dime in his hand convenient to pay car fare with. It slid unthinkingly through his gloved fingers and fell upon the sidewalk. He sidled this way and sidled that, and if you'd believe me, as true as I live, he could not stoop down to pick up that dime. If his life had depended on it I think he scarcely could have done it. He stared helplessly at it, turning red and half giggling till I reached down myself and picked it up and handed it to him with a great flourish. It was a plain case of a supporter. The colored young man informed me that it was quite common for gentlemen to wear these "figure improvers."

I rejoice at it. It is a sign of progress. I only hope that as a next step stuffed cushions a foot square will be loaded upon their backs, and that stiff steel semi-circles will be gathered into their coat skirts, for them to sit down upon. Their pockets, meantime, should be tucked away between the stuffed cushion and the steel springs, so that they will have to poke their hands away round to their backbones to get at them, and when found they will be no bigger than a rat hole, for fear of destroying the "style" of the garment. If the already heavy cloth of which their garments is made should be folded three thicknesses deep, and wrapped around them as if they were mummies, then the estimable masculine sex would know something of the delights of the stunning and "stylish" tailor made dresses that the women wear at present.

ELIZA ARCHARD.

FOUR of the five saloons at Washington, Ill., are owned by women.

DOUBLE!

Friday Observed by Two Hangings.

Judge Gresham Orders the Wabash Receivers to Make a Report on the Chicago Branch.

A Lowell Treasurer Gets Away With Something Between $200,000 and $500,000.

Two Men Hung.

FORT SMITH, Ark., July 23.—Lincoln Sprole (white) and Calvin James (colored) were hanged here to-day for murders committed in the Indian territory.

An Order on the Receivers of the Wabash.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Judge Gresham decided to enter an order on Humphreys and Tuttle, receivers of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific Railroad company, to bring before him a thorough report of their management of the Chicago division of the road. This is done to bring before the federal court here material for adjudicating upon the rights of bondholders of the Chicago division as opposed to the general bondholders and creditors. The order is granted on the intervening petition of Henry Lardner. The receivers are to make a report inside of fifteen days.

A BAD MAN.

The Treasurer of the Lowell Bleachery Short Upward of $200,000.

Boston, July 23.—The directors of the Lowell Bleachery corporation, a large and wealthy concern, removed Samuel G. Snelling from the office of treasurer, which he has held for twenty-seven years. A committee to investigate his accounts was appointed. Its chairman said that the deposed treasurer has been guilty of grave irregularities. The amount is not known, but it may be anywhere from $200,000 to $500,000. The capital stock of the corporation is $550,000, but this is no indication of its wealth, for the assets are far in excess of that figure.

An Attempted Fraud.

CHICAGO, July 23.—A writ of attachment has been levied upon the stock of Snyder & Hoole, dealers in book binders material and supplies on complaint of Tibbetts, Harrison & Roberts, of New York, who object to what they claim is an effort to put the assets of the firm in such a shape as to delay the collection of claims. The title of the firm was changed to The C. L. Hawes Company.

The firm of Snider & Hoole, book binders and dealers in printing materials, made an assignment this afternoon. The liabilities are placed at $35,000, with assets equal to that amount.

A Fund for Gladstone.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The World proposes a popular subscription for the Gladstone testimonial and starts the list with $100. Contributions should be limited to small sums, for the more popular the testimonial can be made, the more satisfactory it will assuredly be to the recipient. The World will receive and acknowledge all sums intrusted to its care.

An Agreement Made.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The Western Linseed Crushers' association, last evening, came to an agreement to regulate prices without an attempt to control the production. The agreement, which is backed by heavy paid-in-forfeit, will go into effect when 90 per cent. of the crushers have signed. The thirty-two firms represented at once signed the agreement.

A Big Race.

LONDON, July 23.—The race for the Eclipse stakes, valued at £10,000, at Sandown Park, was won by H. T. Barclay's six-year-old brown horse, Bendigo.

A BOY HURT.

A Son of William Lindeman Knocked Down by an Ice Man.

A young man named Helling, who runs an ice wagon for his father, delivers the congealed to William Lindeman on East Berry street every morning. It is his custom to pass through the saloon and toss a piece of ice over a board fence for the Immel household. He did it this morning and a huge chunk struck little George Lindeman on the forehead, cutting a gash two inches wide into the bone. The boy fell heavily to the brick walk behind and again split his scalp on its edge. Blood spurted from his head, but he bravely walked to Woodworth's drug store where Dr. B. S. Woodworth dressed his wounds and put a ligature on the severed arteries. The swelling on the lad's forehead was about the size of a biscuit and he will be laid up for some days. Young Helling once before struck a son of Henry Immel in the same way and may change his program now.

A Crank from Roundout, N. Y., is Arrested for Supposed Designs Upon the President's Life.

A Son of Mrs. Emma Molloy was Drowned at Laporte Last Night.

ANARCHISTS.

Ladies Give Them Flowers To-day.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Franz Hein was the first witness in the anarchist trial. His testimony was brief, telling what Neebe said in his saloon after the McCormick riot, which was: "There will come a time, perhaps, when everything will go the other way." The defense refused to cross-examine him. During the trial this morning the defendants were given flowers by some ladies.

Drowned at Laporte.

LAPORTE, July 23.—Mrs. Rose Stern, daughter of Jacob Wile, of this city and Frank Molloy, son of Emma Molloy the evangelist, were drowned in Pine Lake near town yesterday afternoon. Both bodies have been recovered. The deceased were riding in a shell boat on Pine lake, and the waves being high the boat was capsized. The bodies were recovered in a short time after the accident in about ten feet of water. They both have a large circle of friends here, and their untimely death has cast a gloom over the entire city.

Threatened the President.

ROUNDOUT, N. Y., July 23.—Nathan Schuyler, the young man arrested by the Albany police, yesterday, for fear he might be a possible Guiteau, is a resident of Roundout, and can be best described by the Scotch phrase, "an innocent."

SAYS HE IS CHRIST.

Strange Hallucination of William Henry Harrison Maxfield, Who Announces He is the Redeemer.

"There is a strange character," said A. H. Bittenger, pointing to a rather good-looking middle-aged man who amused himself bracing up a post under the arched well. "He thinks he is Jesus Christ, and tells about it with an earnestness that is pitiable. He met me this morning and announced himself as the Redeemer. He admits his presence is not appreciated, but insists that it will be, as he is arranging with the elements to announce the event."

About this time the man approached and quickly advanced his hobby. He says he sees heavenly objects about the arched well and deprecates the fact that others are blind to the sights. Last night two lights appeared before him and gradually coalesced. This he maintains demonstrates the trinity of which he is one. He says he understands the language of animate and inanimate beings and six months hence he says his mission will be announced from the clouds.

The man is persecuted just as he expected. He lives in a house owned by Mr. P. A. Randall, in the east end, and Hayden & Douglass, his agents, have served notice on him to vacate for non-payment of rent. He proposes to give the real estate men evidence of his divine mission to-morrow and if that does not stay them he will bring the earth to a focus promptly. The man's name is William Henry Harrison Maxfield. He is a plasterer by trade, and has a family. This is indeed a queer case.

THE FIRST "BOSS."

Interesting Recollections and Reminiscences of Aaron Burr.

Aaron Burr had the reputation at the Capitol of having delivered the most impressive speech ever uttered within its walls. It was when he took leave of the Senate as its presiding officer, he having been Vice President. I have heard a Senator who was present state that nearly every one was in tears, and so unmannered that it was nearly half an hour before they could recover themselves sufficiently to choose a President pro tem.

The characteristics of Vice President Burr's manner appeared to have been elevation and dignity, a consciousness of superiority, etc.; nothing of that whining adulation, those canting, hypocritical complaints of want of talents, assurance of his endeavors to please them, hopes of their favors, etc. On the contrary, he told them explicitly that he had determined to pursue a conduct which his judgment should approve, and which should secure the suffrage of his own conscience; and he had never considered who else should be pleased or displeased, although it was but justice on this occasion to thank them for their deference and respect to his official conduct, the constant and uniform support he had received from every member, for their prompt acquiescence in his decisions, and to remark, to their honor, that they had never descended to a single motion of passion or embarrassment; and so far was he from apologizing for his defects, he told that, on reviewing the decisions he had occasion to make, there was not one which, on reflection, he was disposed to vary or retract.

Burr was unquestionably one of the most remarkable men that our country has ever produced. The designs which clouded his name in his own day with the suspicion and charge of treason differed very little from the occupation of Texas by citizens of the United States, the temporary independence of the territory so detached from Mexico, and then its final incorporation into this Union. And so with his duel with Hamilton, in which the great financier fell. Burr was a victim to the barbarous custom of those days, and killed a popular favorite. Other vices cluster around his name, but they cannot present him, even to the eye of moral judgment, as less than an "archangel fallen."

When a boy, residing with my parents in New York, at the corner of Maiden Lane and Broadway, I used to see Burr pass every morning and afternoon as he went to and from his law office. Tall, soldier-like, and walking with a soldier-like air, he attracted attention as he passed along, and people would stop and point him out to others after he had gone by. One day I was in the law office of Anthony Dye, where my uncle, Allan Dodge, was studying his profession, and Burr came in to inquire about a case in which he was counsel. I regarded him with dread, and yet I was fascinated by the courtesy of his manner, the pleasant expression of his bright, keen eyes, and the gentle winning tones of his voice. He was at that time virtually an outcast from the circles in which he had once been a leading figure. Very poor, he took cases which other lawyers refused to touch, and he often found it difficult to procure the necessities of life. Yet he never lost his dignity or self-respect, and appeared, amidst the vicissitudes of his old age, to enjoy that peace and serenity which only a quiet conscience can bestow. He was, undoubtedly, the first political "boss" of the State of New York, and it was by following his advice that Van Buren passed from office to office until he became President of the United States.—Washington Correspondence Omaha Republican.

WHAT THE BLIND CAN DO.

A shining example of what the blind who have courage and determination can do could be witnessed in the late lamented Henry Fawcett. He refused to allow his infirmity to interfere materially with his career and habits, though, of course, it modified and altered their channels. It is well known that he was an admired horseman and fisherman, and if he was undeterred by the drawbacks of his condition when they were suddenly thrust upon him in early manhood, surely children who have never known the blessing of sight can be brought up to regard blindness as nothing which need prevent their taking their place comparatively on a par with the rest of the citizens of the world. Henry Fawcett is not alone. Other blind men have, to all intents and purposes, lived their lives as thoroughly as thousands with their eyes have done. We have heard of sightless travelers and writers innumerable. There were Milton, Prescott, the historian, Huber, the naturalist, and Braille himself, to quote only a few that occur to me. Dr. Armitage, again, has traveled far and wide, frequently visiting most of the European centers, where he could acquire information and, so to speak, see for himself how the blind are educated and cared for. Two years ago he made a prolonged journey through the States of America with the same object, though he did not fail to enjoy the pleasures of travel for his own sake. Only in very rare instances in the future need there be any occasion for allowing a sightless person to become a burden on his family or the charity of the benevolent. "The night cometh when no man can work." Then, of course, the blind, if they have not acquired resources of their own, must be provided for. At the same time it cannot be gainsaid that they do require immense assistance throughout their lives. It is on account of this assistance not having been hitherto always rendered upon a wise and logical system that so many mistaken ideas have prevailed as to what are the real capabilities of the blind.—The Fortnightly Review.

His Breath Kept.
Dr. George T. Beaton thus writes in the British Medical Journal: "I have thought it right to put on record the following case, as it seems to me to be one of some rarity and to have some importance, from a medico-legal point of view. I cannot do better than give the facts in the words of the patient himself, who communicated them to me by letter. He writes as follows: 'For a month or so I was troubled very much with foul eructation. But the smell of the gas which came from my stomach was disagreeable to myself and all who happened to be in the room. About a week ago, as I said, I got up in the morning and lighted a match to see the time, and when I put the match near my mouth to blow it out my breath caught fire and gave a loud crack like the report of a pistol. It burnt my lips and they are still sore. I got a terrible surprise and so did my wife, for the report awakened her.' From the above occurrence it would appear that the conditions known as 'halitosis,' or diseased breath, is not only a source of misery to the sufferer and those compelled to associate with him, but may, under certain circumstances, become a condition of danger to the unfortunate possessors of it. In the present instance the gaseous results of imperfectly digested food had their atoms of carbon and hydrogen so arranged as to give rise to the presence of carbureted hydrogen, the inflammable and explosive qualities of which come into play when mixed with due proportion of atmospheric air in presence of the unguarded light of the burning match. I may add that the patient to whom this accident happened is a most intelligent and observing man, and that the diet I prescribed for the indigestion from which he suffers from time to time has alcohol excluded from it, and I know that my instructions in that respect are acted upon.'

A MIRACLE-WORKING IMAGE.
It appears that Kieff, one of the "holy" cities in holy Russia, is still, as of old, the city of miracles and saints. The latest of the wonder-working images has just been discovered, so writes the Sarya, in the cottage of a poor man named Prozilido, who caused great excitement in the town by the announcement that the image of St. Nicholas possessed mysterious powers. Everybody made a pilgrimage to the cottage, and the box in front of the image was soon filled with offerings to the saint. The clergy soon interfered, saying that the right place for the miracle-worker was the Cathedral, and the metropolitan platoon ordered it to be taken there. The people, however, objected to such proceedings, and urged that the image ought to be taken to the Trinity Church, where Prozilido worshipped. This was finally agreed on, and the saint was borne in a grand procession, with banners flying, to his place in the church. The money which was collected in the cottage, and which amounted to over 600 rubles, was taken possession of by the police and was safely deposited at their headquarters, which was probably not the place where Prozilido intended it to go.

SYMPATHY.
The comfort of a generous mind to feel for and with one in illness and distress is an enjoyment beyond price. The delight of affording sympathy and succor to the unfortunate and meritorious comes next to it. No man is truly destitute while he can possess the first, none wholly worthless till he is insensible to the latter.

THE SHEEP'S SENSE OF HEARING.

It is said that so acute is the sheep's sense of hearing that she can distinguish the cry of her own lamb among as many as a thousand others all bleating at the same time; and the lamb, too, is able to recognize its mother's voice even though it be in the midst of a large flock. James Hogg, who was a shepherd as well as a poet, tells us that it was very amusing to watch the sheep and lambs during their shearing season. While the sheep were being shorn the lambs would be put into a fold by themselves, and the former would be sent to join their little ones as soon as the operation of shearing was over. The moment a lamb heard its mother's voice it would hasten from the crowd to meet her, but instead of finding the "rough, well-clad, comfortable mamma" which it had left a short time before, it would meet a strange and most deplorable-looking creature. At the sight of this it would wheel about, uttering the most piteous cry of despair, and perhaps run away. Soon, however, the sheep's voice was heard again; the lamb would thereupon return, then once more bound away, and sometimes repeat this conduct for ten or a dozen times before it fully understood that the shorn ewe was in reality its mother.—Little Folks.

Everything is Lovely, and the Goose Hangs High.
This expression is a corruption of an old-fashioned saying that originated in the early days of this country. As most of you know, wild geese, when they migrate in autumn, form themselves into lines shaped like the letter V, the leader flying at the point, the two lines following; and as they sail away, far above the trees, and beyond all danger from guns—on those cold mornings when the air is clear, and the sky beautifully blue—they seem full of glee, and join in a chorus, "Honk, honk, honk!"

Any one who has heard those seriously sounding notes, never could mistake them. And the folks on the earth below who heard the birds' wild call in old times, realized the happiness of the winged creatures in being so high and safe. And so it became quite natural, when two persons met each other under peculiarly favorable circumstances for this or that enterprise, for them to say: "Everything is lovely when the geese honk high!"—St. Nicholas.

The pain and misery suffered by those who are afflicted with dyspepsia are indescribable. The distress of the body is equalled or surpassed by the confusion and tortures of the mind, thus making its victims suffer double affliction. The relief which is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla has caused thousands to be thankful for this great medicine. It dispels the cause of dyspepsia, and tones up the digestive organs. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Scarcely a dozen editors attended the Northern Indiana editorial meeting at Lake Maxinkuckee. Editorial meetings are losing their grip.

FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1886.

THE CITY.

The Blue Ribbon club will hold a meeting to-night to arrange for Francis Murphy's campaign here.

August A. Chapin's family, of Fort Wayne, are occupying the Hamilton cottage on the main land at Rome City.

Hon. Robert Schilling addressed a fine German audience at the court house last night. He repeated the sentiments expressed the night before.

The lawn fete at the residence of Mrs. Wood, last night, was genteel and novel. It realized quite a snug sum for a worthy object, the Ladies' Relief Society.

The Journal has turned its attention from the reunion to abusing Mayor Muhler, Marshal Meyer, Chief Diehl and the police commissioners. They ignore the matter, however, as too little to give any attention to.

A Rome City correspondent says: "Judge Sinclair, Thomas Heller, O. L. Perry and sisters were guests at the Sylvan Lake House on Saturday last. They were among the excursionists of that day by the Bass foundrymen of Fort Wayne."

The big barn on the farm of Mrs. Casper Kern, on the Maysville road, burned last night together with its contents and surrounding sheds. In the barn there were about forty loads of hay, the wheat crop from twenty acres, three horses, one of which was valued at $350, two calves and a lot of farming machinery, such as mowers, reapers, wagons, etc., all of which were destroyed. The entire loss is estimated at about $3,500, upon which there was an insurance, in the Adams Township Mutual, for $1,800, or just about one-half. Mrs. Kern is the mother of Mr. Jake Kern, the popular deputy county clerk.

Sam Jones will be at Rome City on August 4th.

Dr. Fieser celebrated the 47th anniversary of his birth to-day.

This morning the work on South Calhoun street was resumed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lillie are sojourning in northern Michigan.

Christian Newcomer and family left for Colorado Springs yesterday.

Miss Minnie Bruner, of Wabash, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. J. McLain, of East Wayne street.

Mr. Gottlieb Nieman was chosen to represent Emanuel's Lutheran church at the conference at Cleveland, August 4.

Mrs. A. J. Estey and Miss Albia Cook, of South Broadway, left to-day to visit friends at Van Wert and Celina, Ohio.

Sam Miller is still confined to his bed by the injuries he received in his runaway accident. Henry Fisher hobbles along with the aid of a cane.

Mr. W. S. Oppenheim, the brilliant young attorney, is a democratic candidate for joint representative between Allen and Huntington counties.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger returned this morning from Cincinnati, where, with other distinguished prelates, he paid his respects to Archbishop Elder.

The street car company will run an extra car next Sunday morning for people who want to attend the Lutheran mission festival at the Concordia College place.

Charles Shuman, one of the Crystal Palace gamblers, who had his case continued, was fined this morning and paid $18 for participating in a game of draw. It was cruel to rake in the "pot."

Rev. P. H. K. McComb, of Webster Grove, Mo., is in the city visiting relatives. Mr. McComb will preach in the Second Presbyterian church next Sabbath, morning and evening.

Mr. Edward Wellhausen, of the firm of Wellhausen & Sioher, St. Louis, is in the city visiting his brother-in-law, County Auditor Griebel. Mr. W.'s family has been visiting here for some time.

Mr. John Mohr, Jr., and Mr. Louis Fox, with their wives, will go to Toronto next week and take a trip up the St. Lawrence river. They will visit other places of interest before returning and expect to absent a month.

The Egan company, of Ohio, and the Anthony Wayne company, of this city, have filed articles of agreement with the county recorder. The former gives the latter company machinery to manufacture the Anthony Wayne washers.

Annie Phillips was fined $5 by Justice Ryan this morning for resorting to a joint on Barr street. Her frail companions were acquitted yesterday and Annie wept bitter tears this morning, as she had not a dollar or a solid fellow to pay her fine.

Immense quantities of wheat are accumulating now at the great grain elevators. 176,316 bushels of wheat were bought at Toledo and 278,000 bushels at St. Louis. This will have a bad effect on the prices and the farmers will do well to withhold their wheat from the market for some time.

Building permits have been granted to Mrs. Mattie T. Tolan to erect a two-story frame house on Williams addition, to cost $1,200; to Daniel Lohmeyer to build a three-story store building on lot 131, old plat, to cost $2,000, and to F. H. Schuhler to put up a frame stable on lot 22 Farnan's addition, to cost $50.

Howard Douglass, supreme chancellor Knights of Pythias of the world, and the supreme lodge officers and representatives who accompany him on his return to Cincinnati to-morrow evening.

Postmaster Fisher, of Rome City, writes the Ligonier Banner: "The dancing on the Island Saturday afternoon and evening was well patronized. The music furnished was excellent, the order and gentlemanly conduct was never excelled by any excursion party to our city. We heard lots of praise given to this party—the Bass foundrymen."

A pretty young wife appeared at the postoffice in a neighboring town Tuesday with a money order sent by her husband. Her signature and the name on the office record did not correspond; but the order was cashed after she had explained that she had been married but a short time, and that her husband wasn't accustomed to spelling her first name; he had always called her "dearie," "sweetest" and such.

"A letter from a citizen of Indianapolis now in Chicago has been received describing the trial of the Anarchists. It is stated that a few days ago, Mr. Phil Rappaport, of this city, walked into the court room and presented Spies and another one of the prisoners with bouquets."—Indianapolis Sentinel. THE REUNION.

It is all Right if it is Square Business.

THE SENTINEL gives the soldiers' reunion another back hand cut in last evening's issue. THE SENTINEL can certainly not make many friends by its course in this matter.—Journal.

THE SENTINEL has said nothing unkindly of the reunion, but objects to humbugging the people. It asks the reunion people to produce proof that the gentlemen they advertise will come here. If they have any guarantee or assurance that Sam Jones, Bob Ingersoll or Sam Small will come here during the reunion, THE SENTINEL will be pleased to publish the same free of charge. We cannot afford to humbug our neighboring people and farmers because it injures the city and drives trade from us. In the surrounding towns big posters are hung up saying that Sam Jones will be here during the reunion. We contend that this is wrong and injurious to the business and commercial reputation of Fort Wayne and will rest on the reunion promoters.

Senator Edmunds Sends in a Resolution to Investigate the Canadian Fishery Question.

The Oleomargarine Bill Goes to the President—Morrison's Surplus Bill.

THE FISHERIES.

A Senate Committee to Look Into Them.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Senator Edmunds to-day submitted the following resolution, which was referred to the committee on foreign relations:

Resolved, That the committee on foreign relations be and is hereby instructed, to enquire into the rights of American fishing vessels and merchant vessels within the North American possessions of the queen of Great Britain where the rights of such vessels have been violated, and if so, to what extent.

That said committee report upon the subject and report whether, and if so, what steps are necessary to be taken by congress to secure the protection and vindication of the rights of citizens of the United States in the premises. That said committee have power to send for persons and papers, to employ stenographers and to sit during the recess of the senate, whether as a full committee or by any sub-committee thereof. That such sub-committee shall for the purpose of such investigation be a committee of the senate to all intents and purposes.

It is now understood that a caucus of republican senators was held at Senator Sherman's home, last evening, and resulted in the appointment of a committee consisting of Senators Sherman, Allison and Aldrich, to devise a line of action with respect to the Morrison surplus resolution. It is said the expression of views were widely divergent, but it was thought the political indication is that the senate committee on finance should not ignore the resolution. The committee, it is believed, will seek to amend it, leaving to the secretary of the treasury some measure of discretion he now has over the matter and increasing the minimum, the reserve to be left in the treasury.

The house has concurred in all the senate amendments to the oleomargarine bill, thus averting the necessity for a conference. The bill now goes to the president for his action.

Hour's resolution for the investigation of Payne's election, was lost by a vote of yeas 15, nays 44.

Railroad Y. M. C. A. Social.

Last evening the rooms of the association were filled with sociable people who had come to enjoy a few pleasant hours. The male choir, led by Mr. Bradley, sang several of McGrawham's songs, while solos and duets were given by the following gentlemen and ladies: Messrs. Haddon, Hays and Misses Welch, Moore and Doty.

One of the most enjoyable features was the singing with guitar, accompanied by Mr. John Maier. The next social will be given by the young gentlemen on the 16th of August, when they will assume all responsibility in the matter and give the ladies a season of rest.

Skull Crushed.

EVANSVILLE, July 23.—A frightful accident occurred about 5 o'clock last evening in Charles Hofferberth's lumber yards, about half a mile below this city.

John Murphy, while engaged in hoisting a heavy piece of timber, let the crank of the winch slip from his hands, and it struck him on the head, crushing his skull. He was taken to his home, where he died at 6 o'clock. He leaves a wife and two children in destitute circumstances.

Hartley Campbell Stinking.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Hartley Campbell is again reported to be sinking rapidly at Bloomingdale. From a reliable source it was learned to-day that the past week has made a marked change in him physically as well as mentally. He fails to recognize his most intimate friends, save for a few moments at a time. He still holds to his idea that he is in partnership with Queen Victoria as proprietor of a large hotel. He falls now to take any interest in billiards, which during his early stay at the asylum, gave him so much enjoyment.

Thanks to America.

Mr. Patrick Egan, president of the Irish National League of America, has received the following cablegram from the Hon. Timothy Harrington, M. P., secretary of the Irish parliamentary party:

DUBLIN, July 20.—Thank the American league for its splendid encouragement in our struggle. Our cause is making glorious progress among English democracy, and no temporary check can affect it. The spirit of our people is excellent. Farnell writes me that he is communicating with members and will name the deputation to your convention in a day or two.

HARRINGTON.

Took Poison.

CINCINNATI, July 23.—A special from Coshocton, Ohio, says: "Thomas Wilson, a woolen manufacturer and an extensive wool buyer, at Roscoe, took a dose of oil of vitriol last night and died this morning. It is not known whether it was purposely or accidentally taken. He was a member of the constitutional convention of 1851."

Vermont Democrats

MONTPELIER, Vt., July 23.—The democratic state convention met this morning. S. B. Shurtleff and P. M. Meldon were nominated for governor and lieutenant-governor respectively.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. J. C. Wagner is dangerously ill. Hon. R. C. Bell has returned from Kansas City and Indianapolis.

The weather indications for Indiana are: Fair weather, warmer, northerly winds.

Supt. and Mrs. G. F. Felts are pleasantly located at 220 West Wayne street, where they will be glad to see their friends.

Al. Foote and Will Bostick came home from Lima last night by rail. They had a delightful tour on their bicycles, barring a few bad roads.

Dr. S. O. Metcalfe tells us that people in the east end have lodged complaint against O'Reilly, who keeps a dairy and harbors cows to the great disgust of his neighbors.

"Mrs. C. W. Graffe and daughter, of Fort Wayne, visited Mrs. George Webster last week. On their return home Mrs. Webster accompanied them," says the Monroeville Breeze.

The normal institute will begin on Monday next. There will be at least 100 teachers in the city. Persons in the west end wishing boarders or roomers should apply to County Superintendent Felts.

"Mr. Lewis and lady, of Fort Wayne, have been spending several days with their son, Joseph. It is a pleasure to converse with two old persons who are so young and so good," says the Monroeville Breeze.

Jokers may say what they please about the perils of the early watermelons, but the fact is that the quality of the melons received from the south this season is first-class. People can't be scared from feasting on them except by the prices at which they are held. The dread of doctor's bills don't stand in the way.

William Ravenstrot, a member of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific wrecking crew, was loading heavy timber on the wreck train at Andrews last night, when a rope he was holding broke, causing him to fall to the ground, a distance of ten feet. Ravenstrot's back was wrenched by the fall, and he sustained internal injuries which will prove fatal.

Hon. R. C. Bell informs us that while at Indianapolis last week he asked Hon. Robert Ingersoll, by the request of the reunion committee, if he could attend the reunion here and deliver an address. He answered that under no circumstances could he attend. Mr. Bell so informed the committee. In the face of these facts they are advertising that Mr. Ingersoll will be here.

THE WABASH

Indulges in a Disastrous Collision and Smashup.

There was a disastrous wreck on the Wabash railroad, near Kokomo, last evening. The train from Indianapolis ran into a caboose on the Han-Handle road, and smashed things about lively. The conductor and occupants of the cab were in the midst of the debris and miraculously escaped death. The Wabash engineer and fireman leaped from the engine, the front of which was flattened. The passengers on the train were pitched about lively, but escaped with bruises. A special train went to the scene and brought the passengers here at 4 o'clock this morning. They were due here last evening. The damage will exceed $4,000.

Corsets for Men.

"Do gentlemen wear those—those corsets much?" I asked. "Yes, madam," the young man answered. "They improve the figure." "I was willing to get further information. 'But do they call them corsets?'" "No, madam, they call 'em supportants." "A little while after that I was going along the street with a gentleman who was so well-looking that it was a real satisfaction to walk beside him. I know every other woman was looking back and wondering who that distinguished looking man was. Well, he had a dime in his hand convenient to pay our fare with. It slid unobtrusively through his fingers and fell upon the sidewalk. He smiled this way and smiled that, and if you'd believe me, as true as I live, he could not stop down on it. I think he scarcely could have done it. He stared helplessly at it, turning red and half giggling till I reached down myself and picked it up and handed it to him with a great flourish. It was a plain case of a supporter. The colored young man informed me that it was quite common for gentlemen to wear those 'figure improvers.' I rejoice at it. It is a sign of progress. I only hope that as a next step stuffed cushions a foot square will be loaded upon their backs, and that stiff steel semi-circles will be gathered into their coat skirts, for them to sit down upon. Their pockets, meantime, should be tucked away between the stuffed cushion and the steel springs, so that they will have to poke their hands away around to their backbones to get at them, and when found they will be no bigger than a rat hole, for fear of destroying the 'style' of the garment. If the already heavy cloth of which their garments is made should be folded three thicknesses deep, and wrapped around them as if they were mummies, then the estimable masculine sex would know something of the delights of the stunning and 'stylish' tailor made dresses that the women wear at present."

FORT SMITH, Ark., July 23.—Lincoln Sproule (white) and Calvin James (colored) were hanged here to-day for murders committed in the Indian territory.

An Order on the Receivers of the Wabash.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Judge Gresham decided to enter an order on Humphreys and Tutt, receivers of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific Railroad company, to bring before him a thorough report of their management of the Chicago division of the road. This is done to bring before the federal court here material for adjudicating upon the rights of bondholders of the Chicago division as opposed to the general bondholders and creditors. The order is granted on the intervening petition of Henry Lardner. The receivers are to make a report inside of fifteen days.

A BAD MAN.

The Treasurer of the Lowell Bleachery Short Upward of $200,000.

BOSTON, July 23.—The directors of the Lowell Bleachery corporation, a large and wealthy concern, removed Samuel G. Snelling from the office of treasurer, which he has held for twenty-seven years. A committee to investigate his accounts was appointed. Its chairman said that the deposed treasurer has been guilty of grave irregularities. The amount is not known, but it may be anywhere from $200,000 to $500,000. The capital stock of the corporation is $550,000, but this is no indication of its wealth, for the assets are far in excess of that figure.

An Attempted Fraud.

CHICAGO, July 23.—A writ of attachment has been levied upon the stock of Snyder & Hoole, dealers in book binders material and supplies on complaint of Tibbitts, Harrison & Roberts, of New York, who object to what they claim is an effort to put the assets of the firm in such a shape as to delay the collection of claims. The title of the firm was changed to The C. L. Hawes Company. The firm of Snider & Hoole, book binders and dealers in printing materials, made an assignment this afternoon. The liabilities are placed at $35,000, with assets equal to that amount.

A Fund for Gladstone.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The World proposes a popular subscription for the Gladstone testimonial and starts the list with $100. Contributions should be limited to small sums, for the more popular the testimonial can be made, the more satisfactory it will be to the recipient. The World will receive and acknowledge all sums entrusted to its care.

An Agreement Made.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The Western Linseed Crushers' association, last evening, came to an agreement to regulate prices without an attempt to control the production. The agreement, which is backed by heavy paid-in-forfeit, will go into effect when 90 per cent. of the crushers have signed. The thirty-two firms represented at once signed the agreement.

A BOY HURT.

A Son of William Lindeman Knocked Down by an Ice Man.

A young man named Helling, who runs an ice wagon for his father, delivers the congealed to William Lindeman on East Berry street every morning. It is his custom to pass through the saloon and toss a piece of ice over a board fence for the Immel household. He did it this morning and a huge chunk struck little George Lindeman on the forehead, cutting a gash two inches wide into the bone. The boy fell heavily to the brick walk behind and again split his scalp on its edge. Blood spouted from his head, but he bravely walked to Woodworth's drug store where Dr. B. S. Woodworth dressed his wounds and put a ligature on the severed arteries. The swelling on the lad's forehead was about the size of a biscuit and he will be laid up for some days. Young Helling once before struck a son of Henry Immel in the same way and may change his program now.

ANARCHISTS.

Ladies Give Them Flowers To-day.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Franz Hein was the first witness in the anarchist trial. His testimony was brief, telling what Neebe said in his lecture after the McCormick riot, which was: "There will come a time, perhaps, when everything will go the other way." The defense refused to cross-examine him. During the trial this morning the defendants were given flowers by some ladies.

Drowned at Laporte.

LAPORTE, July 23.—Mrs. Rosa Stern, daughter of Jacob Wile, of this city and Frank Molloy, son of Emma Molloy the evangelist, were drowned in Pine Lake near town yesterday afternoon. Both bodies have been recovered. The deceased were riding in a shell boat on Pine lake, and the waves being high the boat was capsized. The bodies were recovered in a short time after the accident in about ten feet of water. They both have a large circle of friends here, and their untimely death has cast a gloom over the entire city.

Threatened the President.

ROUNDOUT, N. Y., July 23.—Nathan Schuyler, the young man arrested by the Albany police, yesterday, for fear he might be a possible Guiteau, is a resident of Roundout, and can be best described by the Scotch phrase, "an innocent."

SAYS HE IS CHRIST.

Strange Hallucination of William Henry Harrison Maxfield, Who Announces He is the Redeemer.

"There is a strange character," said A. H. Bittenger, pointing to a rather good-looking middle-aged man who unannounced himself bracing up a post under the artesian well. "He thinks he is Jesus Christ, and tells about it with an earnestness that is pitiable. He met me this morning and announced himself as the Redeemer. He admits his presence is not appreciated, but insists that it will be, as he is arranging with the elements to announce the event."

About this time the man approached and quickly advanced his hobby. He says he sees heavenly objects about the artesian well and deplores the fact that others are blind to the sights. Last night two lights appeared before him and gradually coalesced. This he maintains demonstrates the trinity of which he is one. He says he understands the language of animate and inanimate beings and six months hence he says his mission will be announced from the clouds.

The man is persecuted just as he expected. He lives in a house owned by Mr. P. A. Randall, in the east end, and Hayden & Douglass, his agents, have served notice on him to vacate for non-payment of rent. He proposes to give the real estate men evidence of his divine mission to-morrow and if that does not stay them he will bring the earth to a foam promptly. The man's name is William Henry Harrison Maxfield. He is a plasterer by trade, and has a family. This is indeed a queer case.

Daily Sentinel

FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1886.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress, 12th District,
HON. ROBERT LOWRY, of Allen.

The success of the democratic party in Indiana is menaced by place hunters—not by the people.

The trouble in a few congressional districts of Indiana is that too many statesmen are running at large and not all of them realize that the party is supreme.

This Gazette is worrying about what Judge Lowry did in congress. He voted right on all questions, reported his committees right, talked right, and gave the offices in his district to democrats. Mr. Lowry stands higher to-day than any man who has been in congress four years, and is just in a position to win fame and favor for the Twelfth district.

CONGRESSMAN FORD made the mistake of his life in not recommending Mr. F. J. Zimmerman, for postmaster at Warsaw. For years Mr. Zimmerman has published a democratic paper in that republican stronghold. He helped to elevate Mr. Ford into power and by every right was entitled to the place. The Sentinel will not be silent when such rank injustice is done a journalist, who has no chance of political reward in Kosciusko county.

There has not been a reasonable, self-sustaining argument advanced against Judge Lowry's election. The Sentinel insists that in almost every precinct in the district, even where the judge was opposed by the press and politicians, his delegates were chosen openly and squarely by the people. He was the choice of the Auburn convention, because he was the choice of a majority of the voters of the Twelfth district and whosever contributes to the defeat of the expressed wish of the party, rings down the curtain of his political career. No man will ever ride into power on the corpse of the democratic party in this district. In this era of democratic triumph men ought to sustain not weaken the administration, which will have a republican house as well as a senate to contend with, if designing politicians have their way. No democrat can afford to lend his presence or voice to the called ramp convention at Kendallville, because no democrat can afford to weaken the party or lessen his standing in it. Judge Lowry is better to-day than he ever was for he is more experienced in public affairs and has more weight in the councils of the nation. This fact is impressed on the minds of the people.

Keep Yourself Before the Public.

Spasmodic advertising is a delusion and a snare, as a money making investment. It serves, perhaps, to keep a man's business from being forgotten by the general public, but its usefulness ends at that point. The great secret of advertising is iteration and reiteration. In due time it commands attention, and the steady, persevering advertiser reaps his reward.

Merchants and business men who have no system about their advertising, simply doing it as a venture, receive but little permanent benefit. Stray shots seldom hit the mark. An occasional insertion of an advertisement is the most costly mode of advertising, for the benefit is less in proportion to the sum expended than in any other way. Steady, persistent effort is the winning card in the management of any business, and applies to advertising as well as to anything else. It is the bold, steady, continuous pulling at the oar that shoots the boat ahead.

There are times when special advertising is excellent, and when it pays. When you have a stock you are selling off at a real discount, not a nominal one, when you have a special line of bargains in certain goods, and other instances of that sort, special advertising, if done freely, is beneficial. But the cheapest way—the one in which you will get the most return for your money is to make a contract for a certain amount of space—so many "squares" or inches, as the case may be—for a year, and keep yourself steadily and constantly before the people.

The public soon know a stirring business man. He is a friend to the newspaper and uses it freely. He does not hide his business away in a napkin, but on the contrary, takes the public into his confidence and invites their patronage. He nails his flag to the mast and keeps it flying year in and year out. His advertisements become public property, and meanwhile his bank account increases. Advertising is the perennial stream of public success.

Therefore don't hurry.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in a great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require any praise from us.

Such a group of hotels and cottages is the Ellerton, with the Frenchy cottage, where Garfield died. Such is the Hollywood, the most gorgeously decorated, perhaps also one of the most expensive, hotels in America. This establishment belongs to the property of Mr. John Hecy. A limited number of splendidly finished and furnished cottages are in this group. They are remarkable in coloring and woodwork. They are a foreign fashion borrowed from French watering places. They are made of cane and willow, and shelter one occupying them from rain and draft. East Indian bamboo lounges, with a little pocket in them to hold a glass and bottle, are also among the holiday good points of furniture. It suggests delicious laziness unspokeable.

SCENES AT LONG BRANCH.

SKETCHES OF WHAT IS TO BE SEEN DURING THE SEASON.

Many Hotels, Cottages and Gambling Houses—Pretty Girls in Shell-Shaped Chairs—The Boss Dude in Paradise. Held on Phil Daly's.

Of the four great seashore resorts near New York city, Coney Island is the place for day excursionists, Ocean Grove and Asbury Park the gathering place of those whom other people call poor and pious, Long Branch is the spot where wealthy Hebrews and summer guests from points outside of New York city congregate, while Newport is where the blue bloods, the self-styled aristocracy of New York city have cottages during the four warm months which are called the season.

The chief features of Long Branch are the hotels and cottages and the gambling houses. It is getting the fashion now for a central dining room, kitchen and restaurant to be built, with a limited number of lodging rooms attached. Clustered all around are cottages, so called; in reality, ornate and large houses of wood. These are usually built without kitchens. The proper thing, that is to say, the fashionable thing, to do is to rent or own a cottage near the central restaurant and take your meals there.

SHELL CHAIRS.

Such a group of hotels and cottages is the Ellerton, with the Frenchy cottage, where Garfield died. Such is the Hollywood, the most gorgeously decorated, perhaps also one of the most expensive, hotels in America. This establishment belongs to the property of Mr. John Hecy. A limited number of splendidly finished and furnished cottages are in this group. They are remarkable in coloring and woodwork. Upon the porches of these cottages are to be seen the chairs made in imitation of the shape of a sea shell, that you observe in the picture. They are a foreign fashion borrowed from French watering places. They are made of cane and willow, and shelter one occupying them from rain and draft. At the best of times, even from Saturday night to Monday morning, there are three women to one man at Long Branch, as at all watering places.

DUNK IN CLOVER.

The marriageable young man who is there, who has plenty of clothes and money to pay his bond, may be considered to be in paradise. Sweet girls flock around him. They look up to him and adore him when he is there; they dream about him and sigh for him when he is not. He has nothing to do but change his clothes four times a day and look bored and a little melancholy, as though he had secret sorrow. He will be as great a man as a turbaned Turk in his own heart.

The gambling houses have been mentioned. The most splendidly furnished and most renowned one in the United States is here, to make us yet once more of a Long Branch superlative.

PHIL DALY'S.

It is called the Pennsylvania Club house, because it is said to have been started, in the first place, for the accommodation of rich Philadelphians. However that may be, fortunes made all over the country are lost here, and the relentless "per cent" on them goes to fill Phil Daly's already bursting coffers. He built a Roman Catholic chapel with some of his wealth last year, as if to pacify the Lord a little while grating the law's help constantly. But somehow people of any denomination do not take kindly to his meeting house. He has openly defied the law many years, and no attempt has ever been made to raid his house till the other day. It was done then by the aid of a callow young theological student who played amateur detective. He was so awfully set up over it that he burst into the gambling room at the head of some policemen, and brandished a revolver and cried in a loud voice: "I take the credit of this. This is mine."

He was a very meek and lowly young Christian, indeed.

Daly and some of his gentlemen were arrested, but the plucky old gambler showed fight and succeeded in making confusion enough for the customers to get away under cover of it. They were well known New York men who did not want their names in the papers. But the gambling goes on all the same. Phil Daly's men all wear dress suits.

One feature of Long Branch is that day excursionists have no show at all there. No merry-go-round, with monsters on which to ride, no monster coasters, elephants, banded women shows, or any of the nickel entertainment dear to the hearts of children and rustic revivers are there. Long Branch is so high toned as to be very dull for these.

A driveway runs along the bluff, which is not very well kept up, however. The fashionable part of Long Branch, as every other place, is the west end, from the West End hotel ending with the Ellerton cottages. It is not a very great space, but it thinks it is very great.

A REMARKABLE case of fidelity to a dead friend has come to light in Alabama. George Davis, of Seale, that State, murdered Archibald Reams, and when asked why he did so, there being no apparent motive, he replied: "That is my business and Reams's." It is apparent that he was willing to give the dead man a fair show, and offered him a chance to have the first word. A still more singular fact in connection with Davis, who was hanged, was the speech he made on the scaffold, in which he warned all young men against marrying, and not to tell a young lady they loved her unless they really meant it. That is the only safe way to avoid a breach of promise suit, but what that had to do with the killing of Archibald Reams is not apparent.

A Lovely Complexion.

"What a lovely complexion," we often hear persons say. "I wonder what she does for it?" In every case the purity and real loveliness of the complexion depends upon the blood. Those who have sallow, blotchy faces may make their skin smooth and healthy by taking enough of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to drive out the humors lurking in the system.

Excursion to Rome City.

The St. John's Lutheran church will give an excursion to Rome City, August 12, for the benefit of the church. We all Murphy's campaign here.

August A. Chapin's family, of Fort Wayne, are occupying the Hamilton cottage on the main land at Rome City.

Hon. Robert Schilling addressed a fine
German audience at the court house last night. He repeated the sentiments expressed the night before.

The lawn fete at the residence of Mrs.
Wood, last night, was genteel and novel.
It realized quite a snug sum for a worthy object, the Ladies' Relief Society.

The Journal has turned its attention from the reunion to abusing Mayor
Muhler, Marshal Meyer, Chief Diehl and the police commissioners. They ignore the matter, however, as too little to give any attention to.

A Rome City correspondent says:
"Judge Sinclair, Thomas Heller, O. L.
Perry and sisters were guests at the Sylvan Lake House on Saturday last.
They were among the excursionists of that day by the Bass foundrymen of Fort Wayne."

The big barn on the farm of Mrs.
Casper Kern, on the Mayaville road, burned last night together with its contents and surrounding sheds. In the barn there were about forty loads of hay, the wheat crop from twenty acres, three horses, one of which was valued at $350, two calves and a lot of farming machinery, such as mowers, reapers, wagons, etc., all of which were destroyed. The entire loss is estimated at about $3,500, upon which there was an insurance, in the Adams Township Mutual, for $1,- 800, or just about one-half. Mrs. Kern is the mother of Mr. Jake Kern, the popular deputy county clerk.

Sam Jones will be at Rome City on August 4th.

Dr. Fiser celebrated the 47th anniversary of his birth to-day.

Mrs. A. J. Estey and Miss Albia Cook, of South Broadway, left to-day to visit

It was cruel to rake in the "pot."

well to withhold their wheat from the market for some time.

THE REUNION.

It is all Right if it is Square Business.

THE SENTINEL gives the soldiers' reunion another back band out in last evening's issue. The SENTINEL can certainly not make many friends by its course in this matter.—Journal.

The SENTINEL has said nothing unkindly of the reunion, but objects to humbugging the people. It asks the reunion people to produce proof that the gentlemen they advertise will come here.
If they have any guarantee or assurance that Sam Jones, Bob Ingersoll or Sam
Small will come here during the reunion,
The SENTINEL will be pleased to publish the same free of charge.
We cannot afford to humbug our neighboring people and farmers because it injures the city and drives trade from us. In the surrounding towns big posters are hung up saying that Sam
Jones will be here during the reunion.
We contend that this is wrong and injurious to the business and commercial reputation of Fort Wayne and will react on the reunion promoters.
